

Turn your anger into action¹

Turn your anger into action
After a hard day's labour
When you are faced by an empty plate
Turn your anger into action.

After cultivating acres of others' land
When you own no shamba of your own
Turn your anger into action.

After tending goats month after dry month
When you have not a kilo of meat to eat
Turn your anger into action.

After building yet another bungalow
When the only shelter over you is the sky
Turn your anger into action.
